A Taste of the Town

Giuseppe Ippoliti, owner of the Four Seasons Restaurant in Mount Airy, serves up slices of roast beef to diners at the Taste of Mount Airy held last Saturday night at the Mount Airy Volunteer Fire Company's Activities Building. According to Frank Illiano, owner of New York J & P Pizza and organizer of the event, the dinner sold out and raised more than $11,000 for the Mount Airy Youth Athletic Association's soccer programs.
